

Interdisciplinary Center for the Study of Global Change (ICGC),
University of Minnesota
Program on Water Governance, University of British Columbia
Institute for Water Studies, University of the Western Cape

Water Governance and Access in the Global South:
Advancing the Research Agenda

Wednesday, November 28

(LOCATION FOR WEDNESDAY SESSIONS: Wilkins Room, 215 Humphrey School)

- |               |   |
|---------------|---|
| 9:30-10:00am  | Breakfast   |
| 10:00-11:00am | Participants' overview of water research: we invite you to introduce yourself and tell us about your interest in the project  |
| 11:00-12:00am | Working group discussion of history of group and two objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Collaborative research project on water resilience</li><li>• International Waters Network for Research and Training on Water Governance</li></ul>                          |
| 12:00-1:30    | Roundtable and discussion on water governance and resilience (brief comments by Leila Harris, Jacqui Goldin and Larry Baker followed with response by Heather O'Leary)Open to public and lunch served – invite any colleagues or students who might be interested |
| 2:00-4:30     | Working group outlines research questions and methods for collaborative research grant proposal (share outline by email with Thursday conference call participants) as well as funding opportunities  |
| 7:00          | Working group dinner at Karen Brown's house (2100-28 th Avenue South, Minneapolis 55406, phone 612-333-4478)   |

Thursday, November 29

(LOCATION FOR THURSDAY SESSIONS: Stassen Room, 170 Humphrey School)

- |            |   |
|------------|---|
| 9:00-9:30  | Breakfast   |
| 9:30-12:00 | Conference call with working group, Karen Bakker at UBC, other potential partners, to discuss proposal outline    |
| 12:00-1:30 | Lunch   |
| 1:45-4:30  | Working group develop research proposal and outline for research and training network proposal including partners |