FALL 2015 EVENTS OVERVIEW

18 September, 12pm  ICGC Special Event: Dr. Linda Herrera, “Arab Youth: Disruptive Generation of the 21st Century?” College of Education, University of Illinois at Urbana Champaign

24 September, 12-1:30pm  Co-Sponsored Event: Dr. Elizabeth Schmidt, Department of History, Loyola University Maryland

25 September, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: Dr. Sma Mkhwanazi, “School-Based Leadership and its Influence on Teacher Professional Learning in a South African Reform Context,” Department of Education Leadership & Management, University of South Africa

2 October, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: Ju Young Lee, “Matchmaking Business: The Wayward Auspices of Exogamy” Department of Anthropology

9 October, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: Aidan Erasmus, “The Voice and the Speaker: On the Resonance of Social History,” Department of History, University of the Western Cape

9-10 October  Creating a Workable World Conference at the Humphrey School of Public Affairs, made possible by The Workable World Trust

16 October, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: Lauren van der Rede, “Darfur is Dying: Playing with Genocide,” Department of English, University of the Western Cape

22 October, 3:30-5pm  Distinguished Public Lecture: Dr. John Mowitt, “Left Leaning: Toward a Sinister Humanities,” Leadership Chair in the Critical Humanities at the University of Leeds

23 October, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: Jessica Lehman, “Planetary Sea, Ocean Archive: Querying the Geography of History,” Department of Geography, Environment and Society

23-24 October  Co-Sponsored Event: Cultural Critique Symposium: "The State of Things"

30 October, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: Dr. Julie Grossman, “Soil Health and Quality for Food Security: A View Through the Microbial Lens,” Department of Horticultural Science

5 November, 4pm  Co-Sponsored Event with the Institute for Advanced Study: Dr. Louise Meintjes, “Reorganizing a Sensory World: The South African Soundscape,” Department of Music, Duke University

6 November, 12pm  ICGC Special Event: Dr. Sarah Dryden-Peterson, “The Multiple Faces of Social Inclusion: Refugees and the Global Movement for Education for All,” Harvard Graduate School of Education

13 November, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: TBA

20 November, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: Hannah Gray, “Reintegrating Ecosystem Services into Agricultural Landscapes: Conservation Biological Control,” Department of Entomology

4 December, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: Dr. Rachel Schurman, Department of Sociology

11 December, 12pm  Brown Bag Series: Dr. Valerie Were, “Flood Response, Recovery and Preparedness: A Tale of Two Communities,” Forest Resources Post-Doc, University of Minnesota

Events are held in 537 Heller Hall unless otherwise indicated.

Please check the ICGC website (http://icgc.umn.edu) for the most up-to-date location information and full event details.