

ICGC CO-SPONSORED EVENT

An afternoon of poetry reading and discussion on Writing Childhoods with Jacinta Kerketta

Thursday, February 20

2:30-5pm, 215 Blegen Hall

Jacinta Kerketta is a poet, writer, and freelance journalist, belonging to an Oraon Adivasi community of West Singhbhum district. She writes in Hindi. In her poems, Jacinta highlights the injustices committed on the Adivasi communities, along with their struggles. Her poems are also important cultural and artistic documents of Adivasi worldviews. Jacinta is the author of two bilingual (Hindi and English) full-length collections of poems – "Angor" (Adivani, Kolkata) and "Jadon ki Zameen" (Bharatiya Jnanpith, New Delhi). She sits on the editorial board of AGITATE! Unsettling Knowledges.
